Re: Italian Scientific Committee (UK NEQAS for Leucocyte Immunophenotyping)

Dear Participant,

We would like to inform you that from 2nd January 2006 UK NEQAS for Leucocyte Immunophenotyping has established an Italian Scientific Committee:-

Professor Bruno Brando

We believe that this development will ensure that all Italian participants have direct access to a native speaker who is conversant with the technical and scientific aspects of the EQA programmes. We are confident that this development will be of great benefit, especially during the initial phase when laboratories will be unfamiliar with the schemes' requirements.

We would like to thank Professor B Brando for his support of our EQAS programmes.
